A Flying Start For Washington

By BOB TOWNER
Tribune Sports Writer

Those were snarling Washington football Panthers on the night in the first fall Friday night in School Field Stadium, but they were rather tame in the final half — and it wasn't exactly their fault.

Bob Van Camp's Green Machine used up a lot of time in pre-game practice as it was forced to wait on extra from their 46 to the Panther 15 with Livesses. Rzepka was punting 14 yards on the play and quarterback Victor Patton tossed a 13-yard pass to Dennis Striving to reach Washington's 22. Three plays later Panther defender Bob Porey picked off another Patton pass in the end zone and ran it out to Gary's 44.

Washington's team reached the 5-yard line on the strength punt late in the final quarter and Washington scored on six plays. Rzepka finally making available on the field in a one situation for the score. Rzepka kicked the punt for the final score.

Donalds and Stee spoiled other Gary drives with fumble recoveries and sophomore Dale Makowski gave the Panthers an opportunity when he intercepted at Gary's, but it went for naught.

were only four seconds left to play. Rzepka dropped back, cocked his arm and, with no time showing on the clock, shot the ball to Zanka who leaped for the catch in the northwest corner of the end zone.

Everything that happened earlier was pale by comparison, but for the record.

Rzepka threw three touchdown passes, connecting on a 60-yard play and a 27-yard shot, both to Thompson. In between Rzepka scored himself on a two-yard burst in the second period, all combining for a 19-7 Washington lead at the half.

rich, climaxed by the 60-yard score.

Green Machine Hits Washington Stays Perfect

Even Ripley wouldn't have believed it. But truth is, stranger than fiction and Washington's Panthers, apparently beaten for the first time this football season, came back with a 21-yard touchdown pass in the final four seconds for a 25-22 victory over Elkhart Central's Blazers Friday night before a hysterical crowd of around 6,000 in School Field Stadium.

It was stranger than fiction. Tom Kurth's Blazers, who had been leading 25-0 at the end of the third quarter, were forced to punt on a fourth-down goal-line situation. But there was a problem. The Blazers' punter didn't even attempt to kick the ball. Instead, he threw it to a Panther, who scored on a 100-yard run. The Blazers' coach, who had been confident of a victory, was left with a 25-22 deficit. The Panthers' defense, which had been struggling, was suddenly energized. They forced a punt on the next play, and then scored on a 100-yard run. The game ended in a 25-22 victory for the Panthers.

Art Displays Originality

A line is a line, but add a little shading and value to that line, and it soon becomes expressive. Artists display their varied talents by experimenting with new techniques. In today's rushing, advancing world, art is no exception.

By using basic knowledge students derive original ideas. Many inner emotions are transferred from pencil to paper, giving the artist a feeling of accomplishment and pride.

Music Tells The Story Well

Our generation, the young, are constantly searching for a way to express themselves and their ideals. Speeches are no longer effective, and books take too long to write. What our generation seeks is instant acknowledgment to reveal ideals, and the device is music.

Students at Washington are offered a chance to learn how to use music as a way to present their ideas through courses such as Music Appreciation, Glee Club, Orchestra, and Jazz Band.

Business—More Than Shorthand And Typing

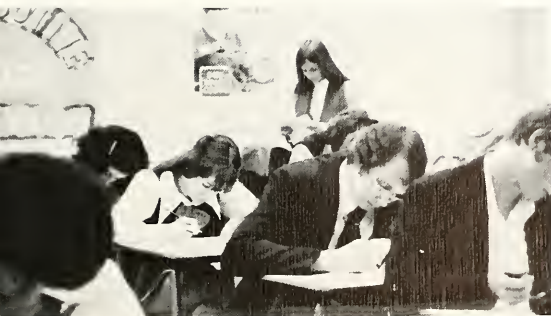

The need for well-trained business and computer-systems people is growing steadily each year. Therefore, the business department teaches the students how to better themselves in concentrated fields of the business world.

Language Aids In Foreign Travel

Man has found languages as the most practical form of communication. With transportation improving at a rapid rate, and the countries of the world becoming more involved with each other, the knowledge of more than one language is becoming almost essential. Our language teachers help give insight into the art of fluently speaking French, German, Latin, and Spanish.

At Washington athletics play a very important part, for they are steeped in a great PRIDE and TRADITION.

"The Green Machine", motivated by this Pride and Tradition, charged on to win the first IHSA Class AAA Football Championship. This combined effort took work, desire, and determination to reach the highest levels of achievement. The desire in the hearts of the players, coaches, and fans has brought the WHS football squad the privilege of being the reigning "STATE CHAMPIONS."

PRIDE and TRADITION, two words that personify athletics at Washington.

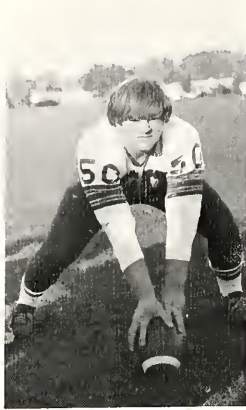

PRIDE and TRADITION, two words that have made Washington great.

This year our Panther teams are no exception to the fine standards set before them. Each individual sport has forged ahead for excellence in achievement and Pride in accomplishment.

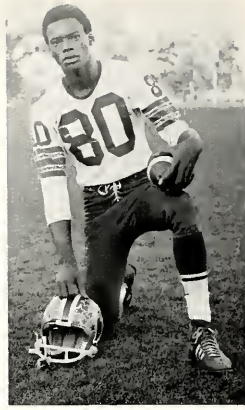

Mike Miller, all-conference halfback for two seasons. Also, selected all-conference defensive back.

Dean Downer, AP All-State First Team Center.

Dan Zanka, voted to the first team at the defensive end position in both AP&UPI polls. Also, selected to all-conference team.

Armond Thompson, voted to the first team at the offensive end position in both AP&UPI polls. Also, selected to all-conference team for second year.

The 1973 football season brought the first high school football playoff to the State of Indiana in order to determine the real State Champion.

It was only fitting that the first State Champion would be our own Washington Panthers.

Since the school started back in 1937, the Panthers have only suffered three losing seasons, creating the best football tradition in the State of Indiana, and also one of the best in the country. Our school enjoyed its fourth undefeated, untied football season. This achievement ran the record down through the years to 256 wins, 66 losses, and 27 ties, which is a winning percentage of .734—quite amazing against the tough competition the Panthers have faced through the years. This year was no exception.

The Panthers opened the season against, then ranked #6 in the State Gary West. Gary West was probably the biggest team we faced all year. The going was tough for a while, but the Panthers pulled off a 19-0 upset.

The next week the Panthers glided to a 43-0 triumph over East Chicago Washington.

Some last-second heroics on a pass from Al Rzepka to Dan Zanka pulled out a narrow 25-22 victory over then ranked #7 in the State Elkhart Central. The game looked as if the Panthers might run away with it after a surprising 19-7 half-time lead.

The following week the Panthers again had an easy time, crushing Michigan City Elston 51-0.

The Panthers then had to grind out three successive victories over tough opponents; Riley, Elkhart Memorial, and Adams by scores of 9-0, 13-9, and 16-7. These victories set up a much-talked about dream game between undefeated powers Mishawaka and Washington. Mishawaka was the pick of many, but PRIDE AND TRADITION won over all.

The early going was tough for both teams. The Panthers failed to capitalize on some early breaks, and it looked as if it was going to be a nail-biter. A fumble recovery returned for a touchdown by Dan Zanka started the "Green Machine" to roll. Before everyone got over their disbelief, the Panthers had exploded for a 32-0 victory over the #3 ranked team in the State.

Top: Halfback Mike Miller shows his maneuver ability to get around defenders. Center: Dan Zanka shows that his hands are adequate for offense, as he engages with one of his many receptions. Above: Armond Thompson, out-judges his defender to receive a touchdown pass.

State guard.

Top; Trainer Irv Ciesialka and Coach Gullifor

injury. Above; Coach "Beans" Van Camp talks to outstanding junior quarterback Al Rzepka.
Al was a first team selection for the AP All-State team. He was also selected to the second team quarterback position in the AP polls. Al also received All-Conference berths at the quarterback and defensive back positions.

The Panthers now had to look forward to playing a surprising La Porte team that was ranked 20th in the State and looking to upset the Panthers for a share of the conference crown. The Panthers took the challenge and gained a 26-0 victory over the Slicers. Thus, the Panthers were headed for the first annual state playoff. With a conference crown under their belts, they almost overlooked a final regular season game with their westside neighbor La Salle. Neither team could produce much offense on the soggy turf, but the Panthers capitalized on a fumbled snap to the La Salle punter which produced a lone touchdown to pull out a 7-0 victory.

Then came the playoffs! The Panthers traveled to Hammond to face #4 ranked Hammond Gavit in the semifinals. On a nippy night in front of many loyal fans, the Panthers pulled off some big plays to gain a 27-14 victory, sending them into the State Championship game to face #3 ranked Indianapolis Cathedral, who a day later ended the nation's longest high school winning streak, by beating #1 ranked Bloomington South, who had won 60 straight games.

The stage was set once again for two undefeated powers, and it looked like the Panthers were up against another tough foe (NOTHING NEW). In a televised game that saw many big plays, the Panthers squeaked out a 19-13 victory in the final minutes to become the first undisputed State Champion with a 12-0 record.

Seven out of the twelve teams the Panthers played were ranked in the top 20 sometime during the season. Another three teams the Panthers faced also received honorable mention from the polls at one time. Thus, ten of the twelve teams the Panthers faced had received some kind of recognition through the state rankings. Therefore, the Panthers did have one of the toughest schedules in the state and proved their greatness with successive victories over the "State's Best".

Although many expect the year to come will be one of rebuilding for Coach "Beans". Beware, because if the Pride and Tradition carries on for the class of '75. "Watch for the Panther Prowl".

This year's Cross Country Team, coached by Mr. Stallworth boasted one of its best seasons of the new decade. This years harrier squad finished with a split season winning four and losing four. The team was lead most of the season by Joel Finch an outstanding senior runner. Junior runner, Oscar Cantu also proved to be one of the improved better runners in the area. The squad also had senior runners Dennis Cwidak, John Solecki, Terry Anderson, Juan Salazan and four underclassmen to carry the load for the Panthers. It was a year of surprises for Cross Country. This years team never lacked spirit or desire to win. They established a Panther tradition for Washington Cross Country teams in years to come.

Hockey is one of the non-popular sports to recently enter the Washington and Michiana areas. Not many people know the basic fundamentals that are used on the ice; regardless, there are many loyal fans who turn out to follow their respective teams at the Notre Dame ACC. Teams are represented all the way from Gary to Wawasee, as well as the South Bend area. The Panther team put together a respectable season, even though hockey is not yet accepted as an IHSAA competitors sport. The team was lead by juniors Dennis Chrzan, Mike Borrelli, Vince Horvath, Tom Miller, and brothers Tim and Ted Sieracki.

The team was coached by a very respected hockey player, Jack Coppelbins, who came to the USA from Holland four years ago. Coach Coppelbins was a member of the Holland National Hockey Team that traveled the world. He was assistant to John Fish on last years club and took over the job for this season. He is well-respected by the team members and hopes to coach future Panther teams to winning seasons.

AND TRADITION IN A LOSING CAMPAIGN

The Washington High School Tennis team of 1973 proved success does not lie in victory, or failure in defeat. It proved that the success or failure of a season rests in the individual's mind. A team could go undefeated; but if the players did not gain a sense of pride, of accomplishment, of spirit and of fulfillment, it all went for naught. This year's Tennis team may not have come out victorious in any of their meets, but what they lacked in experience, they made up for in sheer determination and spirit. The success brought to this year's team was in Juniors Pete Zielinski and Jim Poyser. With only two players leaving this year's squad, the experience gained should only speak for itself. So to judge this year's Tennis team on whether they came out on the long or short end of a match would be to miss the whole point. What motivates any of the athletic squads here in Pantherland is something much deeper and of greater meaning. In short it is Tradition—Washington Tradition.

PANTHERS PROVE TO BE AREA POWER BY DEFEATING THE STATE'S BEST

THE TEAM—At times during the season, especially when they upset Adams in the Holiday tourney, the Panthers looked marvelous. Other times, when the breaks weren't going their way, like the Elkhart Memorial game, they appeared to be like a bunch of grade school rejects.

Good or bad, they were not the Panthers of old, this time they were cool and poised.

For the most part this year's squad are kids filled with the enthusiasm that is part of being young. They have untold promise.

Lead by city scoring champion Dave Wood, with his incredible shooting and manueverability on the court the Panthers finally achieved winning success on the hard-wood.

Not denying the talents of other senior starters, the team would not be a winner without them. The outside shooting of Joel Finch, the fascinating blocked shots by Armond Thompson, the playmaking of Greg Harges, and of course the clutch-basket tactics of Dwayne Mincy, were what the coaches and with no doubt the fans liked to see.

THE COACHES—Unlike many of his fellow basketball coaches, "Subby" Nowicki, head coach of the Panthers, does not pace the sidelines during a game or puff nervously on a cigar or shout at referees and players. Instead, he sits quietly on the end of the bench along with assistant coaches "Juby" Dziubinski and Dave Weber—arms crossed calmly and listens to coach, "Juby" do all the yelling and screaming and so on. And why not?

This year's Panther squad is one of the finest high school basketball quintets in the area.

Although this year's team may not be the best team he has ever coached it is the kind of team "Subby" has always wanted. It is agile, quick, and even hot tempered. To sum it up very easily as said by one of the Panther coaches "if you have the work-horses you'll have a winner."

Kneeling, left to right, E. Robinson, A. Rzepka, M. Miller, G. Harges, R. Stachowiak, P. Zielinski. Standing, (Trainer) T. Machowiak, R. Clark, M. Widowski, D. Mincy, T. Anderson, D. Wood, A. Thompson, J. Finch, J. Byers.

SENIORS CARRY LOAD AS PANTHERS WIN

Surprise seemed to be the reaction of many towards the outstanding basketball playing of this year's bunch of seniors. Some compared this group of champions to "Subby's" '65 club, which went as far as the Semi-state. Winning wasn't hard to achieve for this group even since first dribbling a basketball on the Panther court. Asked, "Why do you think that you have stuck together as winners through the years?" Dave Wood, one of many exceptionally talented members on the squad, answered, "Well, one of the major factors is that we all get along together, on and off the court."

Since mid-fall in 1970, a multi-talented group of boys vastly matured into one of the best group of young men to ever represent a freshman ball club at Washington. They put together a very fine 15-1 season and added city and conference title trophies to the showcase.

Their sophomore season brought many expectations for a winner. Dave Wood and Armond Thompson were advanced to varsity action at mid-season, but the junior varsity still pulled through with a 19-3 season and a victory over Clay for the junior varsity city title, coupled with a conference crown.

The '72-73 varsity season was a disappointing one for the team, as support and grades bogged down some of the more talented players. Even so, they did highlight the season with an upset victory over Hammond Clark.

MINCY, MINCY, MINCY

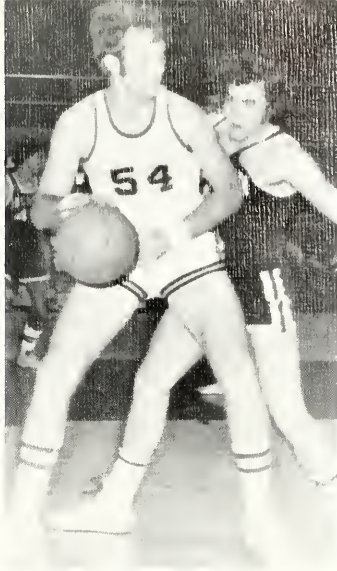

FINCH, FINCH, FINCH

WOOD, WO

The experience gained through the junior year for the non-starters improved them enough to add to the talents of Dave Wood and Joel Finch, who also started the season.

Together once again, as in their freshman and sophomore years, they have charged on to prove that they still are the winners they once proved to be in past years.

W R E S T L I N G

Wrestling, although it has been in the athletic department for years, is still one of the least understood and appreciated spectator sports at Washington. A wrestler must reduce his weight at the beginning of the season and maintain it throughout. This involves a vigorous dieting process and obedience to training rules. Practice involves running stairs and the development of wrestling techniques. In addition to personal satisfaction after a vigorous meet, the wrestlers receive individual ribbons and trophies.

A lack of depth and experience, coupled with very stiff competition, decided the gloomy record experienced by coach Evan's mat men. As usual, individuals brightened the frustrating team situation. The foremost of these people were veterans Jerry Jennings, Doug Outlaw, four-year starter Dennis Cwidak, and little freshman Ron Kruszewski.

Jerry and Doug had the most success

WE'VE GOT SPIRIT . . .

VARSITY SQUAD: Connie Kasznia, Michelle Zurat, Debbie Niemier, Delores Harrison, Sue Lopinski, Kathy Andrysiak

The driving force behind our school spirit lies within our cheerleading squads, otherwise known as the eighteen biggest mouths in Washington High School. With their exuberant energy and enthusiasm, they led our cheering sections through the happiness of victory and kept smiling through the disappointments of our few defeats. These girls have been an example to the rest of the school, teachers, and students of true Panther Pride. Under the direction of Mrs. Pat Czarnecki, these squads have succeeded in cheering the Big Green Machine onto its many victories along with a little help from their friends, the fans.

Man needs to be a part of something which moves, expands, and accomplishes. He cannot drift along on what others have done. Each man must put something back into life. He must get involved in what others are doing. Then differences will fade away and what we have in common will focus. We will be able to say together, WE BELONG TO THE RACE OF MAN.

MR. FOOTBALL

At 6'3, 185 pounds, #81 Dan Zanka was a constant threat to Washington High School opponents. Playing tight end, Zanka scored seven touchdowns and averaged 21 yards in pass reception. This and his tenacious style earned him the name "Mad Dog" by the coaches. Zanka was elected to the All State team, Associated Press, and earned all NIC honors. On Nov. 2, 1973, he was voted Mr. Football by the students at the dance sponsored by the Junior Class. Dan enjoys football very much and says his favorite game was against Mishawaka.

SPIRIT ANGELS

Beginning during the fall football season, Sue Lopinski planned the procedures for a new activity—Spirit Angels. Because of our football team's success, the idea really took action. Each week the players and the coaches of the various sports teams received candy, chips or baked goods from their "secret" spirit angel. Decorating the player's locker was one of the duties the spirit angel did that gave the real feel of Panther Pride. They tried and succeeded in showing that they were behind the Panthers 100%.

Homecoming 1973

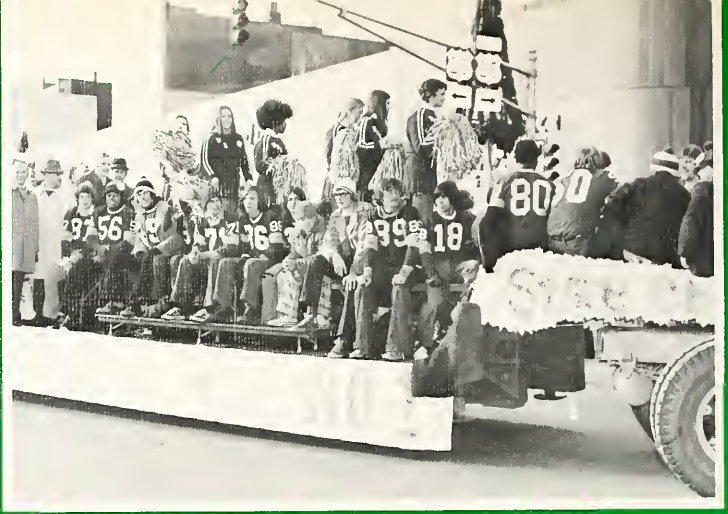

Orange, brown and gold formed the color theme for the 1973 football homecoming. The entire affair was sponsored by the Junior Class and Student Council who worked hard to make it the success it was. The ten girls and their escorts who made up the homecoming court were: (p. 80, l to r) Betty Walker and Dennis Wright, Wanda Mays and Kenny Williams, Debbie Staton and Kevin Ullery, Cindy Kowalski and Rogelio Balderas, Marcia Skorupski and Dave Gehring, Debbie Staton (queen) and Kevin Ullery, Debbie Harker and Robin Robb, Eva Noetzel and Butch Csenar, Margie Linville and John Bennett, Gwen Anderson and Derick Bowie, Sue Kitkowski and Lenny Sikorski.

The performance by the band and twirlers kicked off the ceremony during halftime of the LaPorte game. Debbie Staton was crowned queen by our assistant principal, Mr. Cohen.

Afterwards, the girls and their escorts were treated to a meal at Pizza Hut to celebrate the memorable occasion.

BASKETBALL HOMECOMING 1974

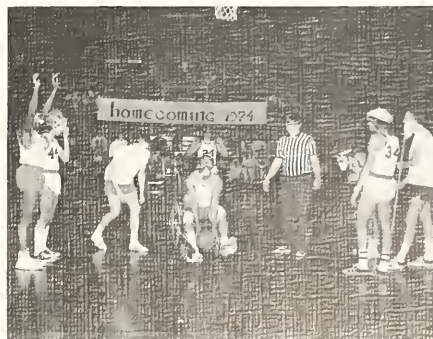

February 2, 1974

"Love Theme" was the theme song for the Basketball Homecoming planned by the Homecoming Committee of Student Council and some interested Seniors. Something new was added to the regular procedures; in addition to a queen of the court, we also had a king. The court was made up of five queen candidates along with their escorts: Debbie Harker and Barry Hafer, Peggy Szlanfucht and Dan Zanka, Kathy Orszulak and Gary Orlowski, Jan Krol and Barry Kaizer, Carolyn Sconiers and Derrick Bowie. Also, five king candidates along with their escorts: Dennis Wright and Bitsy Johnson, Lenny Sikorski and Valerie Burkhart, Vince Zmudzinski and Annie Skorupski, Kenny Williams and Delois Morrow, John Bennett and Jan Metz. On Feb. 1, the court was introduced to the student body at the assembly followed by an "olden days" skit. Afterwards, the entire court went to breakfast at Perkins's Restaurant. During half time of the Benton Harbor game, Carolyn Sconiers and Vince Zmudzinski were crowned queen and king by Mr. Million. Dancing at the Homecoming dance in the gym was the finale to a memorable occasion.

THE HATCHET

Responsibility and patience work along with the Hatchet Staff to produce a weekly publication of the school happenings. This year they are in a pilot program. As a result, the School Corporation and Career Center print the paper, enabling each student to receive the school paper at no cost.

These dedicated students care enough about the "Panther Spirit" to work during their free hours and after school to keep the student body of Washington informed. Each staff member has an important job in completing the copy for each week's issue. It takes many hours of planning, news-searching, and producing to attain a really great paper. Through the organization of Mrs. Marilyn Fodor, The Hatchet Staff has achieved success.

The Washington High School Junior Waltons, a division of the Izaak Walton League of America, is only in its second year of existence. Mr. Klaybor and Mr. Dziubinski members of the St. Joseph County Chapter, organized the Club to give students the opportunity to play a bigger part in the protection and restoration of our natural resources.

A few of the activities include "clean-up" work at parties and helping at Annual Smelt Fries.

The Girls Usher Club are doing their part this year in making the public feel more at home. Distributing programs and helping you find a good seat are only a few jobs that are done by this organization. These girls contribute a great deal to make W.H.S. your kind of place.

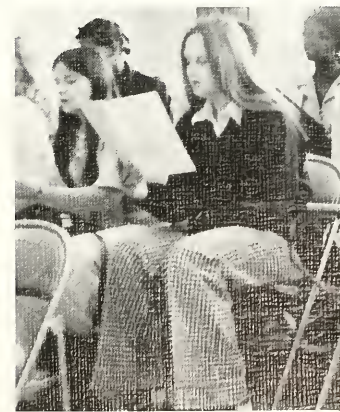

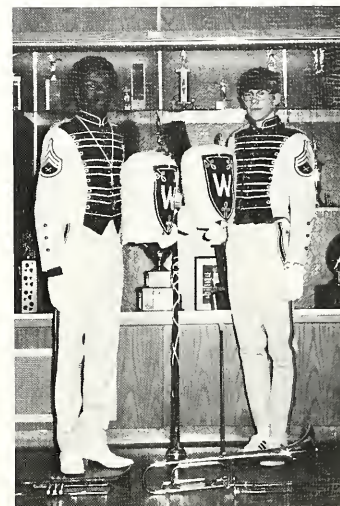

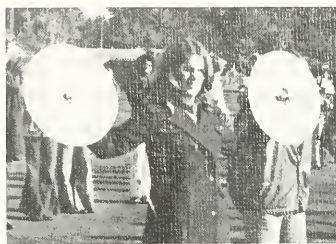

The Pep Band, a very active and important part of the Washington High School Band, inspired the entire student body at the football and basketball assemblies this year. Led by Mr. Zorns, they played many exciting and traditional numbers which rallied student support for victories over other schools. The entire band played in the downtown parade honoring our number one football team.

The Orchestra, directed by Mr. Miller, another part of Washington's excellent musical department, presented a Yuletide concert, followed later in the year by the annual spring concert.

The Glee Club, instructed by Mr. Perry, entertained all with the sounds of melodious voices. The Glee Club this year took part in dance routines, a bit unusual for a vocal group.

Baseball on the Move . . .

When two teams meet that are equal in ability and execution, it's the team that has pride that wins.

—Vince Lombardi—

Although Vince Lombardi was a great football coach, his theory of a good player pertained to all sports—Give 110% and be proud of who you are.

Coach Mike Putnam and Assistant Coach Nowicki couldn't have asked for a club with more experience, especially under pressure. All but one member played in the Matthy's Senior League, of which a few played on the State Championship team 2 years ago. When Pulaski Post 357 won the State Championship in their division last year, it was the Panthers who made up most of the team. This club consisted of winners but could they as a team be a winner? Only the season would decide.

The Panthers can be proud of their accomplishments. They finished the regular season with a record of 11 victories and 6 defeats; the last defeat by one run came right before the Sectional Tourney. This defeat, however, did not destroy the Panther Pride: The Diamondmen went on to win the Sectional, Regional, and Semistate titles only to be defeated in the State playoffs by the score of 2-0, leaving their final record at 18 victories and 7 defeats. Adding to the tally of attributes, half of the All-Sectional team were manned by W.H.S. Panthers, while both Dave Wood and Joel Finch were selected by the pros during the free agent draft by the Chicago Cubs and the Boston Red Sox, respectively.

The 1974 baseball proved that they truly are a team of winners and with their combined efforts brought a winner to W.H.S.

Dave Wood displays his pitching ability which earned him state-wide recognition.

Not to be hidden in the success of this year's male-oriented teams, the Girl's Softball Team brought home a first place title all their own. For Coach Shively's Panthers, many hours of practice and hard work paid off with an overall record of 10 and 2, the best in the city. Through the fine efforts and outstanding sportsmanship, while battling and defeating the area's best teams, the "Diamond-Gals" once again exemplified the Pride and Tradition which have made W.H.S. great.

"We May Never Pass This Way Again"

I pledge myself

To accept the duties and responsibilities imposed upon me as an American citizen:

To use all the facilities which this free country has given me for continuing to grow in mind and spirit;

To participate honorably in the civic life of our nation;

Never to discriminate against any man because of his race, his creed, or his color and to oppose all who do so;

To worship God as my conscience dictates;

To honor and defend my country with my faith, my work, and my life;

And to strive for the peace and welfare of all human kind.

This I Pledge to you,

my parents, my teachers, my community, who have made it possible for me to enjoy the privileges of a land in which these ideals are upheld.

I pledge it so that my generation and my posterity may keep marching

"EVER ONWARD"

UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE

"Hi Teach!" are the first words to greet Sylvia Barrett. This is the moment for which she has worked so hard—her first day of teaching. There's a special happiness in walking into the still, empty classroom and writing her name on the blackboard. Then the moment is shattered. Students pour into her room—loud, curious, testing and challenging. Simultaneously, there's a blizzard of paper work; contradictory orders and unpredictable instructions. Soon, Sylvia adjusts, but finds herself defending Joe Ferone, a young man who's dropping out of school. She also finds herself involved in the start of a romance and generally involved in the sometimes heartbreaking problems of her students. Sylvia is successful and later finds the challenge acceptable and remains at Coolidge High.

Alone and restless, each of us examines today and evaluates yesterday, hoping to find some clue, some answer for the question of tomorrow.
For a few,
today was good.
For others, it was hard
and filled with pain.
But here and there a lesson was learned;
a bit of knowledge became real.
For some it will always be today, but others will begin their tomorrow.

Who knows where the time goes?
 Yesterday wasn't long ago.
 Grade school and recess fell away to Jr. High and immature wisdom.
 High school followed.
 Three years and time for serious study, but then what?
 Many learned from books and lectures.
 Some learned by watching the world go around at its superficial pace.
 It seemed natural for one to wonder where he fit in, what he would become, and where he would be tomorrow.

Laughter and smiles—there was an ecstasy to be found in even the most simple moments. Special friendships and beautiful days, the clever comedian with his quick wit and the humorous, but impossible situations, kept life interesting and fun. Smiles passed from face to face like an infectious disease, and happy recollections filled the mind at the end of the day. Happiness is nice, Maybe tomorrow will be happy.

"For as he walked along in this sudden and complete loneliness . . .
this wonderful knowledge of being one with all his race meant less and less to him, and in its place came something still more wonderful:

he knew what it was to be himself alone, a creature separate and different from any other,
who had never been before,
and would never be again."

with Ulysses Burnette scampering 14 yards on one play and quarterback Victor Patton tossing a 13-yard pass to Dennis Sterling to reach Washington's 22. Three plays later Panther defender Bob Porter picked off another Patton pass in the end zone and ran it out to Gary's 44.

Washington then reached the 5-yard line on the strength punt late in the final quarter and Washington scored its six plays. Rzepka finally cracking middle on the fourth-down-one situation for the score. Rzepka kicked the point for the final score.

Donaldson and Stee spoiled other Gary drives with fumble recoveries and sophomore Dale Makowski gave the Panthers an opportunity when he intercepted at Gary's, but it went for naught.
